Nathan Geiger

University Professor, Bloomington, Indiana
Austin Montessori School, 1994-2000

Nathan Geiger is an Assistant Professor of Communication Science at Indiana University and an alumnus of Austin Montessori School. He began at AMS in the early elementary program and continued through part of the adolescent program. He attended Austin High School and then Texas Tech University, before moving to Penn State where he earned his PhD in Social Psychology.

Nathan's research concerns the communication of climate change and what motivates people to take action on this issue. His memories of his time at AMS include "going on field trips in the woods, which facilitated my understanding of the deep connection between humans and the natural environment, and the importance of protecting the environment."

Nathan's younger siblings Davis and Tess Geiger also attended AMS.
