

THE TATNALL SCHOOL

Full-Time English Instructor

Founded in 1930, The Tatnall School is an independent, coeducational, college-preparatory day school situated on a pastoral, 110-acre campus in Greenville, Delaware, near Wilmington. Tatnall includes four academic divisions with 500 students from age 2 through grade 12. Its challenging academic curriculum and programs, combined with award-winning faculty and state-of-the-art facilities, create an environment of educational excellence. Because of its emphasis on creating a caring and nurturing community, Tatnall's motto, omnia in caritate – all things in love, is at the core of everything the School does.

Tatnall is seeking a dynamic Upper School English teacher able to teach a range of courses, including AP English Literature and Composition. The teacher would be a member of the Upper School English Department, working alongside veteran colleagues. The department is actively involved in Tatnall's mission to help students develop critical reading, writing, speaking, and thinking skills. In addition to their work in the classroom, department teachers frequently work individually with students to offer support.

Responsibilities include the following:

- Teach five sections of English
- Participate fully in the life of the community
- Other duties as assigned

Qualifications and Requirements:

- Bachelor's degree required; MA preferred
- A minimum of three to five years of teaching experience in an Upper School setting is preferred
- Experience working with diverse groups of students and appreciation for a range of learning styles
- Excellent written and oral communication skills
- A student-centered approach to education
- Ability to work in a diverse and lively independent school setting and to work closely and collegially with students, faculty and staff, administrators, and parents

Interested candidates should electronically submit a cover letter and resume to:
