Middle School or Upper School Teaching Apprentice Program

The Kingswood Oxford Teaching Apprentice Program provides aspiring teachers an opportunity to be an integral part of an independent school community while gaining the skills and experience necessary for their own professional growth. In order to facilitate experiential learning with time for reflection and mentoring, Apprentices teach 1-2 classes (paired with a veteran faculty member) and increasingly assume the professional independence and responsibility of a Kingswood Oxford faculty member. Apprentices also learn about and practice their craft through involvement in co-curricular activities (including athletics), where, with the help of seasoned faculty members, they learn to manage groups of students, work towards long-term goals, and plan daily activities for student improvement and growth. In addition to weekday lunches, housing, and a stipend, Apprentices receive professional development in the form of participation in a week-long orientation program before the start of school and monthly workshops on a variety of topics.

Located in West Hartford, Conn., Kingswood Oxford is a coeducational, independent day school for motivated students in grades 6-12. KO actively seeks to attract and welcome a diverse population of students, faculty, and staff, including differences in race, color, religion, nationality or ethnic origin, gender expression, gender identity, and sexual orientation. At KO we believe that a diversity of ideas and perspectives enriches our community and improves our understanding. We continually work to increase equity and access within our learning community and seek candidates who are similarly committed to this work. If you would like to join us in this work, we welcome your application. Additional information about Kingswood Oxford School can be found at kingswoodoxford.org

Teaching Apprentice candidates must have a bachelor’s degree as of June 2020, but no teaching experience is required nor is a major in a specific subject area. Interested applicants are encouraged to apply at any time, as the school is continuously looking for qualified candidates for this program. Please send a cover letter and resume to jobopenings@kingswoodoxford.org.
