Citing Sources Using Modern Language Association (MLA) Rules

Citing Books:

Author’s name. Title of book. Place of publication: Publisher, Date.

Citing an article in an Encyclopedia:

Author’s name (if given). “Name of Article.” Title of Encyclopedia. Edition and or Date.

Citing a Reference Book:

Author’s name (if given). “Title of Article.” Title of Reference Book. Editor. Place of Publication: Publisher, Date.

Citing an Article from Contemporary Literary Criticism (CLC)

Author of excerpt. “Title of excerpt” in Original book or magazine in which it was published, bibliographic information for the excerpt in Contemporary Literary Criticism, v. #. Editor, Place of publication: Publisher, Date.

Citing Online Data Bases:

Name of author (if given). “Title or article.” Title and date of print publication. Name of Database. Publication medium (Online). Name of the computer service.(Internet). Date of access.

Samples: Electric Library

Infotrac

Lexis-Nexis

Britannica Online

Grolier Multimedia Encyclopedia

The World’s Best Poetry Online

Grove’s Dictionary of Art Online

GaleNet Databases (Scribner Writers Series, Discovering Collection, Literature Resource Center and Student Resource Center)

Citing an Article from a Periodical (Article from an actual copy of a journal or magazine):

Author’s name. “Title of the article.” Name of the periodical, Series number or Name, Volume number, Issue Number, (Date of Publication), Page numbers.

Citing an Article from a Newspaper (Article from an actual copy of a newspaper):

Author’s name. “Title of Article.” Title of Newspaper, Date, Edition, Section.

Citing an Article in a Microfiche Collection of Articles:

Citing Information from the Internet (WWW):

To cite files available for viewing/downloading via the World Wide Web by means of Yahoo, Dogpile, or other Web browsers, provide the following information:

Author’s name (if known). “Title of the document.” Title of complete work (if available). Date (if available). Full http address (URL) enclosed within angle brackets. Date of visit to the Internet site followed by a period.

Citing Information from CD-ROM:

Author’s name (if known). “Title of article.” Title of database. Publication medium (CD-ROM). Name of vendor. Electronic publication date.