

ANNETTE ESKIND INSTITUTE OF LEARNING

AT CURREY INGRAM ACADEMY

Evening Session

Take Charge of Treatment for Your Child with Asperger's (ASD)

Focus: Parents and Educators of Students of All Ages

Tuesday, October 17, 2017, 6:30 - 8:30 p.m.

Location: Jim and Jan Carell Hall, Henderson Auditorium

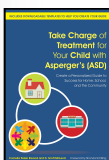

Take Charge of Treatment for Your Child with Asperger's (ASD) combines personal examples, professional guidance and practical tools to help solve typical challenges that parents of children with ASD face. Parents learn how to become effective case managers and lead their child to reach maximum potential at home, at school, and in the community.

Presenters: Cornelia Elwood and D. Scott McLeod, Ph.D.

Cornelia Pelzer Elwood is the mother of two sons, one of whom has Asperger's Syndrome. She received her BA from Vanderbilt University, trained as a life coach, and earned a Certificate in Autism Spectrum Disorders from Antioch University New England. She has many years of experience collaborating with her son's providers and interacting closely with his schools. She is based in the Boston area.

D. Scott McLeod, Ph.D., is the Executive Director of the Massachusetts General Hospital Aspire Program* Clinical Instructor of Psychology for Harvard Medical School, and clinical psychologist for individuals with autism spectrum disorders and their families in his private practice in Wellesley, Massachusetts. He obtained his Ph.D. in clinical psychology from Boston University.

The book Take Charge of Treatment for Your Child with Asperger's (ASD) written by the presenters will be available to purchase at the event. If you are interested in purchasing, please pre-order when you register.

* www.massgeneral.org/children/Aspire

When: Tuesday, October 17, 2017

Where: Currey Ingram Academy, 6544 Murray Lane, Brentwood, TN

Time: 6:30 - 8:30 p.m.

Register @ www.curreygram.org/communityeducation

Note: there is no cost to attend the session, but please register by going to the QR code or link above.

