Description
Please note: Specialists will be allowed to keep their devices/phones with them for appropriate use as it pertains to their specialty or to play music for campers. (Counselors and J/CITs will not have their phones with them during camp.) All staff will be given radios for communication/safety. Specialists having their phones is a privilege that can be taken away with any personal use.

The Drama Specialist will organize and implement theater games, activities, and small shows to present to the rest of camp on a Thursday at campfire or Friday during pre-determined slot of time. Goals will be to inspire creativity, assist with ensemble/team building, help campers come out of their shell, develop focus, and teach improvisational skills. Drama will be available as a daily choice and weekly choice for campers. The drama specialist will have bunk responsibility.
