SUPPORT STUDENT ARTISTS AND PERFORMERS BY SUPPORTING FRIENDS OF THE THEATER & THE ARTS

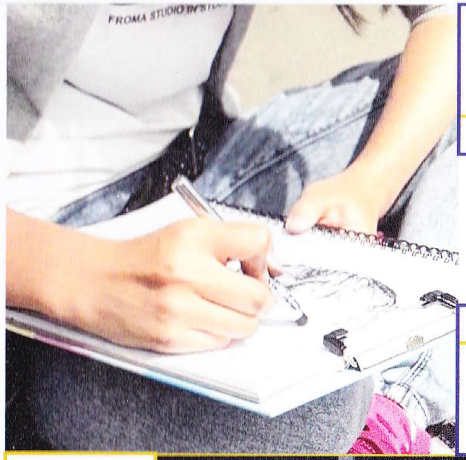

Membership support for Friends of the Theater & the Arts is critical to promoting and encouraging student participation in both the visual and performing arts.

Friends of the Theater & the Arts (FOA) is a volunteer organization supporting performing and visual arts at Academy of the Holy Names, both in the classroom, and as extracurricular activities.

All members are welcome to attend regular meetings included on the school calendar.

ACADEMY OF THE HOLY NAMES

ACADEMY OF THE HOLY NAMES

FRIENDS OF THE THEATER & THE ARTS

VISITING WORLD-CLASS EXHIBITIONS AT THE MET

ENCOURAGING STUDENT CREATIVITY AND EXPOSURE TO THE VISUAL ARTS

Friends of the Theater & the Arts supports the visual arts community by assisting the Art Department with the purchase of materials and other items aimed at encouraging and highlighting student talents.

FOA also helps support museum field trips to expand student exposure to the fine arts.

PROMOTING LIVE THEATER ON THE ACADEMY OF THE HOLY NAMES CAMPUS

Student participants in AHN's theater productions learn the values of hard work and collaboration, as they gain confidence, discover talents and have fun.

Friends of the Theater & the Arts supports a full range of activities associated with the school's theatrical productions each year.

BUILDING CONFIDENT, CREATIVE YOUNG WOMEN THROUGH VIBRANT THEATER AND ARTS PROGRAMS

SHOWCASING STUDENT SUCCESS

Friends of the Theater & the Arts showcases student talents by supporting the Annual Art Show with hospitality and refreshments.

FOA is also committed to making performance-related improvements to the Arts Center, including: upgrades to sound and lighting capacity, costume collections and necessary equipment.
