ETHICAL Leadership in the Arts

SUMMER PROGRAM FOR HIGH SCHOOL GIRLS

JULY 13–24, 2020

Participants: rising 9–12th-graders, all girls
Capacity: 20 students

Time: Monday through Friday, 9:00 a.m.–3:00 p.m.

Location: Kent Place School campus; Summit, N.J.

Cost: $2,195
Includes lunches, field trips, and art materials;
two scholarships available

This two-week summer intensive program invites young women to engage with various art forms through the lenses of ethics and leadership, with the guidance of expert artists and ethicists. Participants will learn how to navigate ethical issues, use their unique voice, and explore different forms of leadership. Visiting artists will introduce participants to their art form and guide them through creating original artworks. Discussions and activities will center on ethical questions, such as:

- What role does a person’s identity have in creating and engaging with art?
- What does it mean to be an ethical leader?
- What obligations, if any, do artists have to themselves, their subjects, viewers, and society?

Early-bird deadline is March 6.
