2012 Ellen Browning Scripps Distinguished Alumni Award
Susan Howell Mallory ’72

In the spirit of Ellen Browning Scripps, the recipient serves as an inspirational role model for alumni of today and tomorrow.

In recognizing Susan Howell Mallory ’72 with the Ellen Browning Scripps Distinguished Alumni Award one phrase in the award citation rings loud and true: The award honors a recipient who has had a broad impact in the pursuit of their goals and has attracted wide recognition for their accomplishments.

A member of the School’s Board of Trustees from 1992-2000, that included serving as president for two years, Susan has chaired her class reunion and has served on the Alumni Association Board. She currently is an agent for her class.

Susan’s entry into Bishop’s as a seventh grader marked the second generation of the Howell family to attend the School (her daughter Emily Ten Eyck ’04 made it three!). Susan’s mother, Peggy Spence Howell, is a member of the Class of 1943, and her siblings Ruth ’71, Amy ’78, and John ’81 attended the School as well. A Mighty Gold and president of the senior class at Bishop’s, Susan attended Occidental College where she earned a B.A. in History and a master’s in Diplomacy and World Affairs and History.

A banking professional since the late 1970’s, Susan is the Global Banking Practice Executive for Personal Financial Services at Northern Trust. In this role, she is responsible for all of Northern Trust’s banking activities and strategy, domestically and globally, for families and individuals of wealth.

With far reaching community involvement that includes the Children’s Hospital (Los Angeles), the Geffen Playhouse, and the University of San Diego, Susan is the recipient of several awards and was named one of San Diego’s 10 “Cool Women” by the Girl Scouts of San Diego in 2004.

It is with extreme pride that we honor Susan Howell Mallory ’72 with the Ellen Browning Scripps Distinguished Alumni Award.
