SUMMER READING INSTRUCTIONS FOR
ENGLISH 10-HONORS  2006

Students in English 10-HONORS 2006-2007 are to read the following books:

Salinger:  The Catcher in the Rye
Remarque:  All Quiet on the Western Front
Knowles:  A Separate Peace

Students are to prepare THREE thesis statements for EACH book (a total of NINE!) on which they could write a paper. These theses will form the bases of the initial class discussions of the books. A paper on one or more of these books will be due on the first day of the second week of classes.

Strongly recommended: go to your local video shop (preferably Premier Video), rent, view, and remember the 1930s black-and-white film of All Quiet on the Western Front. (N.B.: One possible paper is an analysis of how well [or poorly] the book was translated into the film.)
