SUMMER READING ASSIGNMENTS IN HISTORY
SUMMER 2006

Entering 9th grade (AMH) The Source (selections, see below)

Entering 10th grade (Modern World) A World Lit Only By Fire

Entering 11th grade (US History) Murdering McKinley

AP Modern European History Back To The Front

Senior Humanities Back To The Front
Dr. Zhivago

Summer Reading Assignment
Students Entering AMH&R – Fall 2006

You will not need to read all of The Source to prepare for AMHR. Listed below are the chapters and pages you are expected to have read before the first class. Many of these chapters have pages marked "the tell"; you are not responsible for these sections.

The Bee Eater pp. 77-101, 105-111
Of Death and Life pp. 113-140, 143-163
An Old Man and His God pp. 165-184, 191-232
The Voice of Gomer pp. 323-342, 346-364
In the Gymnasium pp. 365-400, 403-412

The following chapters will be assigned for reading and discussion during the third trimester. You are welcome to read as much of this material as you like this summer.

A Day in the Life of a Desert Rider pp. 593-634
Volkmar pp. 635-665, 669-691