Landmark Christian School respects and is committed to protecting your privacy. Landmark does not collect personal information about you when you visit our website, unless you choose to provide such information to us. Landmark will not share, sell or trade your information with outside parties.

Disclosure of Student Information
Landmark Christian School will not sell, rent or trade personally identifiable information about students. Landmark Christian School reserves the right to share student information with third parties limited to a student's first and last name, and where necessary, a Landmark email address in order to establish web-based educational accounts for classroom use.

Online Information that Landmark Christian School collects

Online Enrollment
In order to apply for enrollment, or to register an existing student, a user may complete an online enrollment form. On this form, a user is required to give contact information, which includes such personal information as name, e-mail address, home address and phone number. This information is transmitted to Blackbaud, a third party vendor that provides the on-line enrollment processing software. Blackbaud uses a secure server that employs the latest in SSL encryption to process online transactions. The information is transmitted from Blackbaud to Landmark Christian School so that the databases of several internal departments can be updated. Only those Landmark employees and consultants with responsible need are authorized to have access to the information saved in the Landmark databases.

Requests for Information and Event Registration
Visitors to our site may request information from Landmark Christian School and may also register for events. Forms used for these purposes require identifying information including names and email addresses. This information will only be used to provide information and Landmark will not share, sell or trade your information with outside parties.

Online Giving
If you complete an online annual fund giving request, you will be asked to provide personally identifying information. This information may be used by Landmark to identify your gift, send you further information about your gift, or to contact you if necessary.

Online Payments
Online payments may be made for application fees, tuition, online giving, camp and summer programs and other possible transactions. Landmark Christian School does not store any credit card or ACH information. All credit card or ACH information is processed by one the following vendors: Authorize.net, or Blackbaud Merchant Services. Please click here for access to their respective privacy policies:
Authorize.net
Blackbaud.com

Opt out or Change Your Contact Information
If you choose not to have your contact information in the Landmark online directory, or you have changes to the information, please contact Alma Stone in the Office of Marketing and Communications at astone@landmark-cs.org.

Links to Other Sites
The Landmark Christian School website may contain links to other sites which may be of interest to our readers. Landmark is not responsible for the privacy practices or the content of such Web sites. We encourage you to be aware when you leave our site and to read the privacy statements of each Web site that collects personally identifiable information. This privacy statement applies only to information collected by this Web site.

Contact Landmark Christian School
If you should have questions about our privacy statement, or with this website, please contact astone@landmark-cs.org or 770-692-6744.