I. All work implemented by the Hockaday Alumnae Association shall:
   • Uphold and support the Hockaday Alumnae Association’s Mission;
   • Reflect the spirit of Hockaday’s Four Cornerstones at all times;
   • Meet Hockaday’s exceptional standards;
   • Foster a safe and welcoming environment for everyone; and
   • Appeal to alumnae across all generations, encourage engagement, and build lasting relationships.

II. Continue to support Eugene McDermott Head of School Dr. Karen Warren Coleman in her leadership of the School.

III. Ensure that the safety, health, and emotional well-being of all alumnae is protected at all times, as we continue to face challenges that the COVID-19 pandemic presents.

IV. Continue to support the work of the Affinity Groups Coordinator board position and continue to strengthen relationships and grow membership in the existing Alumnae Affinity and Special Interest Groups.

V. Encourage meaningful discussions and opportunities for educating alumnae around the areas of diversity, equity, belonging, inclusion, and community.

VI. Support Hockaday’s Annual Giving; the Alumnae Association Board of Directors and Class Agents (Communications and Fundraising) shall strive to meet the goal of 100% participation.

VII. Continue to offer programming and tools that foster engagement and build lasting relationships among the entire Alumnae community and to encourage Alumnae across the decades to support Hockaday with their time, talents, and resources.

The Hockaday Alumnae Association Mission

The Hockaday Alumnae Association is a global network of women who, enriched by the Four Cornerstones and unique educational experience, support the School and her mission, celebrate her community and traditions, and promote mutual growth across diverse professional, social, intellectual, and personal pursuits.
