PALM COAST - The Rev. Dr. Robert Taylor Scott IV, 74, of San Carlos Drive, a retired Episcopal priest, died Friday at home. Rev. Scott, a former chaplain in the Navy, was born in Richmond, Va. He moved to this area in 2000 from Florence, S.C. He was also a former professor of religion in Florida as well as other states throughout the country.

Over the years, Rev. Scott received several educational awards. He was a professor emeritus at Francis Marion University. He was a graduate of Virginia Seminary, Richmond, Va., and he received his doctorate degree from Duke University, Durham, N.C. Rev. Scott was a member of St. James Episcopal Church, Ormond Beach, and enjoyed swimming, biking, gardening and reading.

Survivors include his wife of four years, Carol Enge Scott; a son, Robert V, Williamston, Mich.; a daughter, Mary Carter Scott, New York City; a sister, Mary Blair Valentine, Richmond, Va.; and six grandchildren.

Memorial donations may be made to the Robert Taylor Scott Scholarship Fund, Francis Marion University, P.O. Box 100547, Florence, SC 29501. Watts Funeral Home, San Mateo, is in charge.

Published in the Daytona Beach News-Journal on 5/10/2006.